Frugals #1 Port Angeles

Port Angeles donated Free Meals Cards to put in the goodie bags for the 11th Annual Transition Fair.

The Transition Fair is held by Clallam County Health and Human Services for students with developmental disabilities.

Their mission is to provide students with disabilities the chance to learn about successful employment opportunities and to find resources that are available to them after graduating high school.

Way to go to you Bob for continuing to show your support for the local community!!!

Frugals #2 Tacoma

Frugals #2 closure has the Tacoma patrons going through Frugal withdrawals. Numerous emails have been received by the Corp. Office from random customers asking us to hurry and open back up so they can get their Frugal Fix. It's so nice to know that we are missed. To all of you waiting we are hoping to be open sometime during the first week in May. Thank you for your patronage!!

Frugals #4 Auburn

Employee performance evaluation leads to opportunity to shine. One staff member from day and night crew were chosen and made supervisor for a day and awarded a gift card based on their work performance.

Props to Tanya, what a great way to show the staff appreciation for all of their hard work!!!

Frugals #5 Kalispell

Kalispell showed their community support by donating Free Meal Cards to the Human Therapy on Horseback 7th Annual "Making Miracles Happen" Dinner and Auction on May 1st.

The Human Therapy on Horseback is an organization dedicated to providing financial assistance to physically, mentally, and emotionally challenged individuals through therapeutic horseback riding. Props to you Amy for continuing to show support of your local community!!!

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

Success is all about how effectively you communicate with your employees. First of all being clear what the vision of the business is, that is the responsibility of the leader, and that can't be delegated. How we're going to go about getting to that vision and how we're not going to get there, and then describing what their role is in that journey.

~Betsy Bernard
President of AT&T Business
